Read the passage and answer the following questions nos. 46 to 50.

They say, "India is a rich country of poor people. "And the poverty of our nation is very prominent in the international arena. But when someone tries to highlight only the dark shades of our society, it not only becomes unacceptable but also needs to be criticized, as our superhero Amitabh Bachchan rightly did.

Slumdog Millionaire is a movie based on the rise of a boy from the slums of Mumbai to be the winner of the well-known TV show Who Wants to be a Millionaire. The story ends when the boy actually wins the show despite several setbacks. A cursory glance at the Slumdog script would suggest that it is just another ordinary film. But the question arises as to why and how it is receiving so much recognition that it has won multiple nominations for the Oscars ?

The answer lies in the movie itself. Affluent people from the rich nations love to watch stories based on countries with people in crisis.
