Q.31-35. Read the poem and answer the following questions.

A Green Cornfield

The earth was green, the sky was blue:

I saw and heard one sunny morn
A skylark hang between the two,
A singing speck above the corn;

A stage below, in gay accord,
White butterflies danced on the wing,
And still the singing skylark soared
And silent sank, and soared to sing.

The cornfield stretched a tender green

To right and left beside my walks;

I knew he had a nest unseen
Somewhere among the million stalks:

And as I paused to hear the song
While swift the sunny moments slid,
Perhaps his mate sat listening long,
And listened longer than I did.
